

PEACE THOUGHTS

Hospitality means we take people into the space that is our lives and our minds and our hearts and our work and our efforts. Hospitality is the way we come out of ourselves. It is the first step towards dismantling the barriers of the world. Hospitality is the way we turn a prejudiced world around, one heart at a time.

It is the key to new ideas, new friends, new possibilities. What we take into our lives changes us. Without new people and new ideas, we are imprisoned inside ourselves.

Joan Chittister

Do not give to the poor expecting to get their gratitude so that you can feel good about yourself. If you do, your giving will be thin and short-lived, and that is not what the poor need; it will only impoverish them further. Give only if you have something you must give; give only if you are someone for whom giving is its own reward.

GOSPEL THOUGHTS Luke 10: 38-42

Our parish is the host to a family of swifts. The parents are spending endless energy feeding the young ones. Where is the best arena for healthy, loving relationships to grow and thrive? Domestic life is a proper and authentic space for making babies and spending adult life to safeguard and strengthen the life of those 'little ones'.

Conversations and hospitality are the best atmosphere in which to experience the presence of God and his plan for how to spend our lives for others.

Sarah, Abraham, Martha and Mary are the chosen players in God's activity in revealing the importance of feeding the family. Your home and family is God's chosen place to work.

REMEMBERED

...during Mass

John O'Neill, Germano Rodrigues, Louis Fernandes, Ronnie Birch, Felicia Banienuba, Tony Bullen
and all our family and friends who have gone before us.

PASTORAL PLAN

One of the four sign posts that emerged from the work that we in our local church have been doing over the last few years is "Embed synodality in every aspect of archdiocesan life."

We are not only to take but to give. Your experience and skills are how you are to give.

God is there for us. We are used to asking for our needs. God is calling us, inviting us to join in the work of being there for each other. There are to be lots of opportunities for formation as we are all called to 'leadership'. The structures and relationships in the Archdiocese are all to be realigned so we look outwards to all around us instead of simply looking after ourselves.

....The new Deanery Synodal Council will have a mix of people. Representatives will consist of a lay person from each parish and three priests. Their agenda will be, how to be the Church among and for the local families and their concerns.

We have three interested parishioners for this role.

Inside Public Spaces!

We would always want to be polite to those who are careful/anxious. Therefore we ask you to consider continuing to wear a face mask and to sanitise in church.

PARISH FORUM

Four areas of parish life - which are Liturgy, Catechesis, Finance and Social Concerns - meet occasionally and representatives make up a FORUM. This forum meets with the parish priest quarterly, in the hope that we all influence each other in the development of our community.
