

PEACE THOUGHTS

God is here and now at work among us as much as God has ever been anywhere. How easily, even we believers, can forget that.

It's our job to let God's always-available love inspire us to make that love visible in the world through our lives.

Our God is compassion, and calls us to be compassionate: literally, to 'suffer with' those who are hurting.

It's so difficult to see another suffering and to go toward that pain. It's much easier to put blinders on and to turn away.

But faith demands movement toward those who are lonely and forgotten.

Christian love, rooted in faith, is not just found in the affections of our heart, it is also found in the actions of our hands.

GOSPEL THOUGHTS Luke 9:11-17

"Bread" was a TV series about a family all around the table. Mum was at the table and the family all had to contribute to the family budget by leaving cash under 'the pot'. "Bread" was money but also everyone's efforts to look after the family.

"Bread" was chosen by Jesus because it is a source of nourishment and love. Family life all over the world gathers around bread. Family responsibility is achieved by food and the service of the "breadwinner". We all learn from being fed and we grow up to be contributors to the pot.

The five thousand are fed. The disciples learn that their job is to feed others. St Paul(2nd reading) tells us we are fed as family around the table by Jesus laying down his life for us.

Is it our turn to be fed? We can learn we are to feed others. Our vocation is to contribute to the family, community, neighbourhood and the global family confident we are nourished by Jesus

PASTORAL PLAN

One of the four signposts that emerged from the work that we in our local church have been doing over the last few years is "Embed synodality in every aspect of archdiocesan life."

Pope Francis has said that the whole Church should follow this path. He has said, "The world in which we live, and which we are called to love and serve, even with its contradictions, demands that the Church strengthens cooperation in all areas of her life." This means that giving attention to the future and listening to each other - all parts of the Church - will help us work out what the Holy Spirit is calling us to be and do. We should become a Church of participation, solidarity and transparency, and thereby become a sign of hope to humanity.

PARISH FORUM

.....met recently and discussed the new way of being church locally. The new Deanery Synodal Council will have a mix of people. Representatives will consist of a lay person from each parish and three priests. Their agenda will be how to be the Church among and for the local families and their concerns.
